Thai Vandy is an 18 years old student in 8th grade at The ASIJ School which is located in Chup Krom village, Svay Leu commune, Svay Leu district, and Siem Reap province.

Vandy has gotten five siblings including her. She is a fifth born (youngest child) in the poor family. Unfortunately her father had gone and left her, her siblings and her mother living sadly. Presently, they have owned 24 square meters of land for producing vegetables.

Vandy said, her mother hasn't had any farmland to grow rice and she has grown vegetables from day by day on the land of 24 square meters. Vandy clarified that, nowadays, her mother has raised the children and got income from selling the vegetables.

However, that income hasn't covered sufficiently for daily food. Therefore, one of her three older brothers was ceased the school in order to help find a job to do in the garment factory and got salary to assist her family, clarified by Vandy.

As for Vandy, she hasn't attended the school punctually because of her mother asked her to help growing the vegetables and maintained the vegetables at the farm with her mother.
