

Girl's name: Kin Reaksa

Kin Reaksa is 11 years old. She's a student in grade 7 of CREDO School in Angkarnh Village, Metoek Commune, Bakan District, Pursat Province. She lives in Chentay village, Metoek Commune.

She has three siblings. She's the second child in her family. She lives with her grandmother, because her parents are working in the border of Thailand. So her grandmother takes care of her and her siblings at homeland. She gets only 2000 Riel per day. Her parents send her 50 Dollars per month for study and her grandmother to buy foods and meal, because her grandmother couldn't to earn money by herself. Reaksa goes to school by bicycle. In her free time, she like reading, do homework and help her grandma to cook and sometimes goes to the market.

In the future, she wants to be a teacher, because she thinks that it's a good job. She wants to teach and share knowledge to the children in her village or homeland. She's really likes this job.

Date Posted: March 2018

