

Girl Name: Plev Nhroeut

Plev Nhroeut is 16 years old and has three siblings; one sister and two brothers. Plev studies in grade 9 at The Ascham Community School # 281 in Pou Rang village, Senmonorom commune, OReang district, Monduliri province.

Plev is a very friendly and respectful student who always works very hard. She likes to read books and learn other languages. Plev can speak three languages so far, Po Nong, Khmer and English. Orm Buos, 65 years old, a farmer, is her mother. Her father passed away when she was a little child. Her mom and brother are responsible for supporting the whole family. They own one hectare of farmland that can produce 370 kg of rice per year. Plev's family gets up early in the mornings to work on their farm till late in the evening. Additionally, the family collects various fruits and vegetables from surrounding forests to sell at the local market for extra money. The family lives in a small wooden house within the village.

Plev wants to be a nurse in the future because she thinks the local villagers need more medical attention, and she wants to be able to better support her family.

Date posted: 17 May, 2018