

Girl's name: Bunoeurn Chinda

Chinda is 16 years old, she studying in grade 6th at Masako Sato school in Putreng village, Dakdam commune, Orang district, Mondulkiri province.

Chinda was born in a poor family with eight members. She has three sisters, four brothers, and her father. She is the sixth child in the family. Her mother has passed away three years ago because of sickness, then she live with her father. Her father is a farmer and he has farmland, it's about a hectare to growing rice. The produce of the rice is about 10 bags of rice per year. It is not enough to support the family needs. Beside this her father does the seasonal work with his children such as planting cassava, clear the farm area, harvest the pepper and coffee as well which can earn 20000 riels per day but it is not regular income. At her father raise one pig and some chickens for earn more income to cover the every expense.

Chinda confirmed that, the above earning could not provide enough to the whole family. Therefore, Chinda have to do seasonal work as well to help the family need and help her father to do house work after school.

In the future, Chinda wants to be a police-woman because she love this job and wants to earn a lot of money for support her family.

Date posted: July 2018