

Girl's name: Deina Channeng

Channeng is ten years old and she is in grade fourth at Masako Sato School in Putreng village, Dakdam commune, Orang district and Mondukiri province.

There are four members in Channeng's family. She has two brothers, her mother and her. Channeng was born in a poor family she is the second child in the family. Her parents was divorced three years ago and then her father has married and moved to other province with his new wife's family. Nowadays, she and her two brothers lived with her mother. Her mother is a seller at her village, she sells some vegetables and fishes and she get the income from selling is about 20000 to 30000 riels per day, but it not regular income. This family has no farmland. Every year they bought rice from other people in the village. In corn season her mother boiled green corn, make some Khmer cake and let Channeng sells in the village with motorbike, which she can earn about 15000 riels per day. However, income that her mother earned is hard to feed enough the family but she keep trying to support her children go to school. Channeng is a good kid and she always helps her mother selling cake and do house work after school.

In the future, she wants to become a doctor because and she wants to earn a lot of money to help her family to live in a better life.

Date posted: July 2018