

Girl's name: Loek Sreylin

Loek Sreylin is 12 years old, grade 6th at Masako Sato School in Putreng village, Dakdam commune, Orang district, Mondulkiri province.

There are six members in her family, three older brothers, two older sisters, her mother, and herself. Sreylin is the youngest child. Her parents were divorced many years ago since Sreylin was four years old. He has married new wife and moved to other province with his new family. Sreylin's mother is a farmer and she owned a hectare of farmland to grow rice, which can produce 800 kg of rice per year. The rice product that they can get is not enough to feed the whole family during a year. Besides farming, Sreylin's mother and her older brothers have to work as seasonal labor workers that other villagers they need to help such as planting and harvesting rice, cassava, cashew etc... they can earn 20,000 riels per day.

The above income is not enough to support the family and the supply for children school. Therefore, her older sisters and she have to grow some vegetables and raise some chicken to keep for food and sell to support the family.

Sreylin is a good student and she always explains the lesson to her friends. After school she helps her mother to do housework.

In the future, Sreylin wants to be an English teacher. She wants to teach the children in her community to get better knowledge and easy for them to find a good job in society.

Date posted: July 2018