

Girl's Profile: Seng Sreynou

(This is a photo of Seng Sreynou captured in front of her parents' house.)

Seng Sreynou is a 11-year-old student in 3rd Grade at the Sunnyside School, located at Prasat village, Prasat commune, Prey Chhor district, Kampong Cham province.

There are eight people in her family, her parents, her grandparents, her brothers and sisters. Sreynou has four siblings. She has two brothers and two sisters. She is the first child in the family.

Her father's name is Seng Pov. He's 32 years old. He is a bread salesman. He has to buy breads from the market and ride his old motorbike to sell from one village to another village. He could earn around $100 per month, but this income doesn't regularly sometimes less than this according to the weather. Every day he gets up in the early morning to the market and then sell his bread till in the late evening.

Her mother's name is Sorn Mom. She is 29 years old. She is a house wife. Every day she looks after her children and her parents at home.

Her parents have no their own farm land. Their parents' monthly income is low so they could not support the whole family. They live with many difficulties in their daily lives. However, her parents commits to send her to school and allow her to study more at home. They will encourage her to continue to study until finishing high school and encourage her to continue to university. They would like to thank for the donor who help their daughter so that she feel happy to study more.

Sreynou always helps her parents' housework and takes care of her siblings. She also tries to study more for herself. She commits to finish high school and wants to study more to become a teacher so that she can get money to support herself and her family. She would like to thank for the WAFC/JRFC and her donor who cares for her study.

Date Posted: July 2018