

Girl's name: Thoeurn Kagna

Thoeurn Kagna is 11 years old, she studying in grade 6th at Masako Sato school in Putreng village, Dakdam commune, Orang district, Mondulkiri province.

Kagna was born in a poor family with four members. She has one younger sister, her mother, and her grandmother. Her mother is a widow. Her parent was divorced two years ago, since then Kagna and her sister lives with her mother. Her mother is a seller and farmer as well in her village. She has a farmland near the village, which is the best place to grow vegetables so Kagna's mother and her grandmother are planting vegetables to sell at the market. It's takes about two and half months to get harvest. The produce from the veggies growing is about 250 dollars for once but it's not the regular income and not possible in rainy season. Every early in the morning she went to buy some vegetables and fishes from the market in order to sell and make some daily profit to provide the family .The daily profit from selling in average is about 15000 riels to 20000 riels per day but it's not regular income because the market is far away and have rain a lot. However, the income is not enough to provide the whole family. Kagna is a good girl and she helps her mother to do house work. After school, she helps her mother in a whole day for farm work.

In future, Kagna wants to be an English teacher. She wants to teach the children in her community to get better knowledge and easy for them to find a good job in society. Moreover, she wants to support her family to live in a better life.

Date posted: July 2018