

Girl's name: Lay Chanrat

Lay Chanrat is 15 years old, and she is in grade 9 at Pras Chi Sok Van Secondary School, in Krol Chil village, Popel Commune, Boribo District, Kompong Chhnang Province.

Lay Chanrat lives with her family. There are four member in her family, two brothers and two sisters. She is third daughter of her sibling. Her parents are farmer. Owing 40Area of farmland. The family is able to collect 580 Kg per year. Which is just enough to provide the family. Her mother sell 90 Kg for support her study. Her parents health are good.

Lay Chanrat gets 1000 Riels a day for her studies, and ride her bike cycle to school every day. Chanrat is hard study, And she is a smart student in her class. After school, Chanrat is responsible to help mother with housework and go to learn part-time. In free time, she does exercise with her friends and explain them. She go to planting with her family every weekend.

In the future Chanrat wants to be a Math teacher so she can pass on the Khmer history and knowledge to the next generation. Because she like to study math, and she want to share to other students. Moreover, she wants to earn an income that can better support her family.

Date posted: November 2018