

Girl Name: Morn Srey Le

Srey Le is 11 years old student in 4 grade at Takasu Espoir School in Takhong village Trean commune Kampong Siem district Kampong Cham province.

Srey Le has 8 siblings; she is the eighth child in family. Her parents are farmers who own 0.2 hectare of farmland for transplanting rice. Her farmland is difficult to get water to supply their farmlands so their farmland depends on natural raining only. According to these reasons so her parents can gather 10 sacks of rice's production and a quantity of one sack of rice is about 80 to 85 kilograms. And her parents sell 5 packs for support their family as spent on food, clothes, and material for studying.

Srey Le is a smart student and in her free time, she likes reading book, do homework and house work. In the future, she want to be a teacher because she want to educate young children, she loves teaching and love this career. She wants to earn income to support her family.

Date Posted: November 2018