

Girl's Profile: Vong Kanha

Kanha is 14 years old the student in 8th grade at The Nozomi School # 348 donated by David Sneider and Naomi Pollock Family. Located: Khchass Village, Khchass Commune, Saut Nikum District and Siem Reap Province.

Kanha is the second child in the family, with one older brother. Her parents are farmer but no farmland so her parents owned one hectare of farmland for growing rice. The rice can produce 10 sacks of rice per year and production quantity of one sack of rice is about 75 – 80 kilogram.

After gathering rice is completely her mother needs to sell some of rice with the cost of $100 to pay back for the fertilizers and the land owner and some of money to support the family and buy food that is not enough for a year.

Although, they earned little income from selling rice but that income couldn't settle the family well, therefore, her father has to work as the builder that so far from home at the city and got $3 per day and work someday only but still not enough for support the kinds to school and food for every day.

Kanha is a good student. After school, she goes home to help her parents with house work. In her free time, she likes to read the books and review the lessons from school and help mother to cook meal for her family and play with kids and friends around her house.

Kanha wants to be a teacher when she grows up. She wants to help all the poor kids and the most she wants to earn money to support her family to be better in the future.

Date Posted: November 2018