

Girl's Name: Thoeun Sreya

Thoeun Sreya is ten years old and she studies in grade 4 and she is minority tribe. She studies at The Mr. and Mrs. Sak Nhep School and she lives in Chorng Ra Village Batang Commune, Lumphat District Ratanakiri Province.

Thoeun Steya is the first child in her family and she has got one little brother. Her dad is farmer and he has got one small home with the land width = 10m and length = 20m and he owns his farmland is about one hectare on his farmland he plants rubber farm he cannot gather from the farm because they do not grow up. He sometimes goes to find for work near his home he earns about $7.50 US Dollar per day. And her mum is a housewife. She does her housework and she looks after her little son.

Thoeun Sreya is a very hard girl and a good student everyone at school knows her well because she works hard on all subjects and she always goes to school by bike and by walk her home is about 3 kilometers from school. After school she helps her mum in cooking and she sometimes finds for a work near her home like picking up fruits of cashew apple to support her family as well.

In the future she wants to be a teacher because she likes teaching and she can share her knowledge to the kids in her village and she thinks learning is very important to reduce poverty and develop local human resources.

Additionally, she want to help her brother and her parent lead a better and more comfortable life.

Date posted: May 2019