

Girl's name: Bun Chiva

Bun Chiva is 13 years old. She's in grade 7 of CREDO school. Now she's in Tamom village, Metoek commune, Bakan district, Pursat province.

Chiva has two siblings and she is the first child in the family. She lives with her parents and they are working as farmer. They can earn a little money from this work so her father needs to find another job in other province to earn money to support the family. He always sends the money to the family around 25dollars per month. So she's very difficult and needs more money for living and studying. She gets only 1000 riels per day for going to school. After she leaves the school, she always helps her mother cooking, clean the house, wash the dish, clothes and looking after for her niece. She goes to school by her friends' bike.

In her free time, she always done on her homework, read the books, and helps her mother's housework. In the future, she wants to be a nurse, because she wants to help all people and earn more money to support her family.
