

Girl's name: Lay Chanrat

Lay Chanrat is 15 years old, a student in grade 9 at Pras Chi Sok Van Secondary School, in Krol Chil village, Popel Commune, Baribour District, Kampong Chhnang Province.

Lay Chanrat lives with her family. There are four members in her family, two brothers and two sisters; she is third child in family. Her parents are farmers and they owned 40 Acres of farmland. The family is able to collect 580 Kg of rice products per year. Which is not enough to provide the family and also her mother need to sell about 90 Kg of rice for supporting her children study. Her parents' healths are good. But now, she is living with her sibling, because her parents go to the forest to find other things like burning wood or some wild animal to sell for extra incomes to support the family need.

Lay Chanrat has 1,000 riels a day for her studies; she rides her bicycle to school every day. Chanrat is hard study student, and she is a smart student in her class. She is always standing on number 1 classification in her classroom. After school, Chanrat is responsible to help housework and go to learn part-time. In free time, she does exercise with her friends and help explain them. And every weekend she goes to help her parents on plantings.

In the future, Chanrat wants to be a Math teacher so she can pass on the knowledge to the next generation. Moreover, she wants to earn income to support her family a better living.