

Girl's Name: Yen Seimavortey

Yen Seimavortey is 10 years old and she is in grade 5 at The Wahrenbrock Family School #235 in Takeo province, Ko Antet district, Pech Sar commune, Chong Angkar village.

Seimavortey has three members in her family. There are two parents and one brother. She is first child in her family.

Seimavortey's parents are farmers and they have own 30 A field farmlands which they have cropped two yields of rice and they have produced average is 1,000 kg of rice per year. And they have earned money about cropping yields of rice average is 730,000 Riels per year to support the family in full year. As the family is poor, they have no enough money to support Seimavortey's studies and every expense.

Seimavortey commonly rides a bicycle to school. She is a good student in class and she always help to explain the lesson to her classmate. After school, she needs to help her mother to do housework and various chores.

Seimavortey wants to be a doctor when she grows up. She loves the position very much. Moreover, she wants to assist patients in the rural villages. In her idea she thinks that rural villagers have no enough money to private hospital. And she glorifies domain of health and wants the rural people to believe in state hospital that all the doctors really try their best to take care the patients.

Date posted: July 2019