

Ni Saraem

Saraem is a 15 year old student in 9th grade at The ASIJ School # 467 donated by American School in Japan. It is located in Chub Krom Village, Svay Leu Commune, Svay Leu District, Siem Reap Province.

Saream is the second child in the family. She has one brother and two younger sisters. Her parents are farmers; they have 20000m² of land for planting rice. Every year her family gets 35sacks of rice for eating and they sell 25 sacks to pay for materials to plant rice.

After harvesting rice her mother works as a farmer in the village to get money to support the family but only makes 12000riel per day.

Saream is a smart and good student and she always gets good grades. She tries very hard in her studies. In her free time, she likes to read books and review the lessons from school and cook meals for her sister.

Saraem wants to be a teacher. She wants to help all the poor kids to have better opportunities in the future. Most importantly, she wants to earn money to support her family to be better in the future.
