Chhoeurn Rachny is 15 years old and is a student in grade 8 at The Ang the Ang Daun Pis Village Learning Center #550, located in Korng Pisey District, Kampong Speu province, donated by the students of the Australian international School Singapore.

There are five members in her family, two parents, one son and two daughters. Rachny is the third child in her family. Her father's name is Chea Chub. He is 53 years old. Her mother's name is Um Poeurn. She's 49 years old. Her parents are farmers who own half a hectare of farmland, which can produce 1000 kg of rice per year. It's just enough for using as food for the family. For additional income her father works as a construction worker. He can earn money 30,000 riels per day. After collecting rice her mother stays home and always take the time to crop a little vegetable near the house for food, as the family is poor, there is not enough money to support Rachny's studies. She commonly has to walk to school which is one kilometers long from her house every day.

Rachny is good student and daughter. She works hard in class when she is free from her studying. She is always helps her mother to do housework.

In the future, she wants to be a Khmer teacher. She wants to share her knowledge and teach the children in her commune about Khmer letters and Khmer stories. Especially she would like to be able to support her family and help them to have opportunity to live in a better life.
