

Noeun Sreymom

Sreymom is 15 years old, a student in 8th grade at the Dahlia Sam School in Rong Machine village, Tasal commune, Oral district, Kampong Speu province.

Sreymom has two brothers and she is the second child in the family. She lives with her widower father after her mother died in 2017. Her father owns 0.85 hectare of farmland for producing rice and they can gather around 10 to 15 sacks (50kg/sack) of rice in a year. In the dry season, her father goes up to chop the woods from the mountain forest for selling and make charcoals kiln for selling to earn more income to support the family. Her father can earn around 3,000 to 4,000 riels per day.

In free time, Sreymom loves to read the book, does housework and homework. After school she always helps her father feeding pig and chicken for some more of income. For school day, she can get 500 riels for a snack at school.

In the future, Sreymom dreams to be a teacher because she loves teaching and wants to share knowledge with the next generation. She thinks that her job is an honor for herself and her future. She wants to earn money to support herself and her family and wants to live as a better life like other families.
