

GBA's name: Soy Veasna

Soy Veasna is thirteen years old student in seventh grade at Tbong Damrei Secondary School in Tbong Damrei village, Kampong Chamlong commune, Kampong Chamlong district, Kandal province.

Veasna has an older brother. Her parents are farmer who own 0.25 hectares of farmland for transplanting rice. And their farmland is very far away from home. Her parents can gather 6 to 7 sacks of rice's production and a quantity of one sack of rice is about 70 Kilogram. After free from the farm work, her parents feed and look after the animals like cows and chickens in order earn money to support the whole family.

In her free time, she helps to do housework, homework, helping her mother feeding the animals. She goes to school every day and never misses the class and she is a smart and clever student. In future, she wants to be a good teacher because she likes teaching young children and want to help young children to be good citizens for the country.

Date posted March, 2021