

GBA's name: Tharith Rachna

Tharith Rachna is a 10 years old student in 4th grade at The Lotus School which is located in Tbong Damrei village, Kampong Chamlong commune, Khsach Kandal district, and Kandal province.

She has four members in the family. She has another younger sister and has no brother and she is the first child in the family. Her parents are farmers. Her parents have had 0.3 hectare of farmland for transplanting rice and other crops.

Every year, her parents could gather for 800kg of rice's yield per season as a year but the rice's output couldn't afford the family for a whole year because her parents have sold some rice to pay back to shop owner for the fertilizers.

Moreover, her parents got low income from selling rice so it still was inadequate to afford the needs such as clothes, uniforms and school supplies so it is such hard situation in family of the poor. Nowadays her family always by food every day and other every expense and sometime her parents don't have money for her go to school. They are very poor and her parents hope that will have a sponsor to support their children at school to continue to study.

In the future, she wants to become a teacher because she wants to share all her knowledge to the next generation and rural community. Anyway, she wants to earn the money to support her family to live in a better life.
